

Save the Date!

Breakfast With

Dean Miller

Fire Chief of the Towamencin Fire Co.

Thursday, May 12th, 2011
6:30 a.m. – 8 a.m.

At the Franconia Heritage Restaurant, Route 113 and Allentown Road, Franconia, PA

Dean K. Miller is a 33 veteran of Public Service. In his professional career he is a Police Officer for Lansdale Borough PD where he has served for nearly 25 years. His assignments have included Patrol, Detectives, Administration and Communications; additionally serving 15 years on the North Penn Tactical Response Team and as a DARE Officer and educator. He is currently the Senior Sergeant and is assigned to Patrol. As a volunteer, Dean is a fourth generation firefighter. He has served in three communities and a variety of positions including Vice President, Fire Prevention Educator and Assistant Fire Chief. He is nationally recognized as a Fire Fighter, Instructor and Fire Officer. Dean is the current Fire Chief of the Towamencin Volunteer Fire Company, Kulpsville.

Dean is a Deacon of the Lansdale Presbyterian Church (PCA) serving on the Ministry of Mercy. He served as the Chairman of their "Growing for His Glory" Stewardship Campaign and has been involved in their Worship Band. Dean and his wife, Cindy (Foote), have three daughters; Kellie, Stephanie, and Jaclyn. If you would like to hear more about his life please attend the breakfast on May 12th, 2011!

Order your tickets today
$12.00 per person

More information to follow in a few weeks regarding tickets

Sponsored by: The Bucks-Mont Coalition for Evangelism Breakfast
Committee